SAVANNAH MAXXI 503

The Golf Savannah Maxxi 503 is Golf's new foldout style family caravan. It boasts a smart spacious layout with a large range of features all included as standard.

The production and design team at Golf have created this van to comfortably sleep up to 7 People while still incorporating the Golf Savannah's more adventurous features such as independent coil suspension, dual water tanks, solar power, slide out kitchen complete with fridge and many more standard features to make it one of the best value family adventure style caravans in the market.

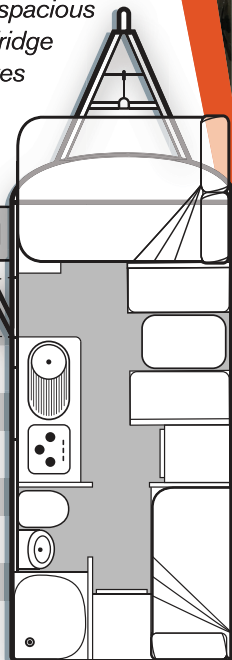

The 503 boasts a fold down queen size bed on the front and double or triple bunks in the rear. It also has café dinette seating which drops into a double bed, giving greater options for the ever growing family while still including some of the essential creature comforts such as a spacious interior layout including a well appointed kitchen with 185lt fridge and full ensuite with a separate shower and toilet which makes the Savannah Maxxi 503 unlike any other van in its class.
